THE SEASON. - This fall has closed beautifully, haging every thing in the vegetable kingdom to fall maturity. The Sea Island crop is a good one. linging every thing.

In Sea Island crop is a good one, foll maturity. The Sea Island crop is a good one, the orange trees have borne well, and present a beathy and handsome appearance. We are presented from Beaufort with a magnificent pomegransate. We gathered on Edisto, three days ago, sevil branches of full-grown olives from a tree loaded with the ripe fruit, and though we have had frost, the daily roses around it were in full and fresh blosted difference with the ripe fruit, and though we have had frost, and work of the ripe fruit, and though we have had frost, and work of the results of the ripe fruit, and though we have had frost, and several strangling woodcocks. The pigs too are marching into winter quarters with wisps of staw on their snow. We may look out for bracing stands after the present rain, which ought therefore to be tolerated.

New Hampshire .- At the election just past in New Hampshire a vote was taken on amending the Constitution and abolishing capital purishment. From the returns received, we are inclined to the opinion that both have been negatived. Some of the strongest Democratic towns vote strongly against both. Thus while New. Hampshire taunts Rhode Island for having what the former calls an illiberal Constitution, New. Hampshire herself refuses to abolish the illiberal portion of her own! By the present Constitu-tion of New-Hampshire no Catholic can hold office in that State; and the people refuse to change that Constitution! We should not wonder if Rhode Island should accuse New-Hampshire of hypocrisy in her professions of " Democracy." Boston Mail. PRAIRIE ON FIRE .- From Capt. Damothe, of the steamboat Lucila, which arrived to-day from Alton, we learn that yes erday evening a fire broke out in the Monticello prairie, a few miles back of Alton, and raged with great fury -Many farms were overrun by the fire, and the fences, barns, outflouses and crops destroyed — The farm of Mr. Corey, the Superintendent of the Monticello Female Seminary, was much in-jured, and all the buildings on it consumed, ex-cept the dwellings. There came an express from the country for aid, and many of the citizens o Alton went out to render assistance in arresting the progress of the fire and saving property.-The light was visible from this city last evening, a distance of more than twenty miles.

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT.—A statement appears in the Richmond Whig over the signatures of twelve gentlemen, passengers in the packet boat Skimmer, on a recent trip between that City and Lynchburgh, giving the particulars of an outrageous assault by the Captain, whose name is Devinny, upon one of the passengers. The parties were intoxicated, and their quarrel grew out of a dispute respecting the election. They were observed to take two drinks together after their first quarrel, soon after which they had a scuffle in the cabin, in which were several ladies. Being separated, they went on deck where they seain came in contest. where they again came in contact.

Soon after that the passenger came down, where all were at supper, and seated himself by the table all were at supper, and seated himself by the table, and had become comparatively quiet. But the Captain, arming himself with a knife, and taking advantage of the old man's position, unexpectedly rushed upon him and inflicted several wounds. The ladies rushed from the table in the greatest alarm, clinging to several gentlemen for protection. Fortunately there was a physician on board, who dressed the old man's wounds. The insignificant poltroon afterwards armed himself with a bowie knife, but it was taken from him and he locked up.

Most of the Whig members are unpledged on the Cur-rency question, and the Atlas does not think that Free Bank-ing on pledge of Ohio Stocks will find favor with the Legisla-ture. The Atlas itself declares for old-fashioned Banks, with cash capital, and with charters which shall restrain the bankcash capital, and wan charless which sain resimal he dalla-ers from issuing more notes than they can redeem on demand, or from suspending specie payments under any circumstances. As for Free Banking, and all such modern devices for creating paper capital, it advises its friends to examine them well, if offered to their acceptance, and to act on this very important abject with their eyes open. It will trouble the Atlas to devise a safer system of Banking than our Free system.

THE NEW WORLD. VOLUME IX FOR 1845.

PARK BENJAMIN, EDITOR.

THE present proprietors of this long-established and justly celebrated literary newspaper take great pleasure in announcing that they have secured the valuable services of PARK BES-JAMIN. Esq. who was the first Editor of the New WORLD, and under whose charge it was raised to the highest point of reputation and prosperity, and by whom it was thus continued for several years.

several years. Arrangements of the most expensive character have been made by which the attractions of the Nzw World will be immensely increased in the coming year, and which cannot fail to give it an enormous circulation in every nook and corner of the land. The most important feature will be a series of exquisitely written sketches, entitled MISERIES OF HUMAN LIFE.

cal, quizzical and pathetic romance, to be illus TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY ENGRAVINGS, Designed and engraved by the greatest artists in Europe, ex-hibiting in the most humorous and ludicrous manner, all the "ills that flesh is heir to," and which will find a counterpar this that first is next to an which was an accomplished in the experience and observation, and every-day life of EVERY MAN AND WOMAN IN AMERICA.

Nothing of the kind has ever been seen in this country—and we can teadily imagine the pleasure and surprise with which this work will be hailed by all classes. This will be followed by
